Please return stolen bike! If any parents see children with a strange bike—a Schwinn, it could be mine that was stolen last Sunday, Jan. 8 from the rear of 804 W. 214th St. between Vermont and the now being constructed freeway near Figueroa.

These kids have bows and arrows and pretend to shoot at each other but are on the prowl to see what they can steal. They also entered my trailer and I wish you could see that mess—what they didn't take, they scattered upside down.

I have been using the bike to exercise an injured knee. I'll be 77 years of age Feb. 8. A couple of these kids are known, so to save trouble, they must return the bike and also a hack-saw which was also taken. They can bring them in the back way, just north of the Adohr milk distributing station at Vermont and Carson Sts. the same way they went out.

I'll not bother them, but I will take legal action if the bike is not returned this week or by Sunday.

EXECUTIVES Huddle . . . President Roger Macomber of Junior Achievement, KRAFCO Co., counseled by Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., visited Torrance Paint Division Factory Manager, W. Harold Douglas, recently to discuss common production and management problems. KRAFCO commenced operations in October at the Prairie Ave. Business Center in Hawthorne, with sales of stock totaling $125 and is now marketing a household Utility Holder for handy storage of paper bags usually saved by the shopper for lunches or garbage pail liners.

County Sues For Land to Widen Street

Supervisor Burton W. Chace reported Tuesday that condemnation action will be taken to acquire title to rights of way needed for the widening and improving of a portion of Hawthorne Ave. in Torrance.

The area to be acquired contains a total of 1236 square feet and consists of two 17-foot corner cutoffs and a rectangular-shaped parcel approximately 18 feet by 40 feet on the easterly and westerly sides of Hawthorne Ave. to the southwest corner of Pacific Coast Hwy. and Hawthorne Ave. Owners of the parcels refused to accept the appraisal figure of $17,773 by the County Engineer, Chace said.
